I wish I could do more than lend my name to opposing racism, other than I do in my work and life. Fle knows I can't make a financial contribution.
You sent me two mailings. I include both envelopes so you can cut down on your work and mailing costs.
Success to you! Especially in the nasty Boston situation. Sincerely, Harold Weisberg